Notices

Welcome Rev Pete Rivett this morning

This morning we warmly welcome Rev Pete Rivett who has just joined the ministry team of our cluster, on a Supply Ministry basis, for four months. We look forward to getting to know Pete and welcoming him into our congregations. Our three cluster ministers, Rev Peter Cannon, Rev Tina Lyndon Ng and Rev Pete Rivett will rotate each week to lead worship at Blackburn North/Nunawading, Forest Hill and Mountview and this will be noted in our notice sheet for your information. Lynne Rosenthal

Introduction of the QR code

The introduction of the QR code at Mountview enables many people to use their mobile phone to register their attendance at worship on Sunday mornings. It's also possible for those with a mobile phone to use the QR code to register someone else.

Stewards and Pastoral Partners will be in attendance each Sunday to register you using the QR system if you do not have a mobile phone. Signing in on a paper list is no longer acceptable! The advantage of this system is that you no longer need to 'book' to attend worship at Mountview. However, it will be necessary to book for combined services, (so we can ensure we meet within the maximum number guidelines) and we will remind you of this when needed. Lynne Rosenthal.

Cluster Easter Sunday Worship Video

This video link is to our Cluster's Easter Sunday worship service: <https://youtu.be/EiBtkwImda4>

It is provided particularly for those absent over Easter or who were unable to attend in person.

We hope it's a blessing to all.

Nametags are helpful

As our three congregations come to know each other more closely in coming weeks and months, can you make a special effort to wear your nametag every Sunday please? This will help us all, wherever we worship but will especially help our ministry team with all the new faces. If you don't have a nametag or need a new one, please let me know. Many thanks, Lynne Rosenthal.

A couple of reminders:

- Wearing of masks during worship is still required despite some easing of restrictions in other situations.
- Bring your mobile phone/smart phone with you because QR Code registration of attendance is now available at Mountview.
