Pentecost 14_B

After Pentecost: A period of time that varies in length depending on whether Easter is early or late.

In this period, the Church recalls its faith in the Holy Trinity.

It seeks to relate its faith as a people of God to Christ's mission in the world.

It commences with Trinity Sunday and concludes with the feast of Christ the King.

Zoom Etiquette

For those participating in the Zoom Sunday worship, just a few brief notes regarding "Zoom etiquette": If you wish to make a comment to another person within your household, or maybe the dog starts barking, please firstly mute your microphone. After your own chat is complete, or puppy is settled, you may unmute again so as to be ready for ongoing group interaction. Thank you. (Unlike in-person chats, Zoom's automated audio processing will amplify and broadcast to everyone else even softly made remarks.)

Another Time to Worship?

For some of our congregation members, it can be quite a challenge to be up and ready to go in time to be at church for worship at 9.30 or 10.00 a.m. Our cluster ministry team is suggesting that providing a monthly worship service at a different time, even on a different day, may give people a new opportunity to worship together, possibly including Holy Communion.

This could be held at, say 2.30 p.m. on a week day afternoon. The venue could be any one of our 3 churches; that has not been decided yet. Would a monthly week-day afternoon service be helpful to you?

We could arrange transport to bring you to the service if you wish. Friends and family will be very welcome to attend with you. When permissible, afternoon tea following worship sounds like a wonderful idea!

We are asking for your feedback, please. Would this optional time for worship suit you? Could we help you with transport? Please let your Pastoral Partner know, or a Minister, or Lynne Rosenthal.

We're excited with this idea from our Ministers and we are looking forward to hearing from you.

Cluster Chat Group Invitation

Here is the link for the Chat Group next Tuesday 31st at 3.30pm. (I've made this a recurring meeting so that we can use the same link if we decide to have a group in another week.) Last Tuesday we had some members from across the Cluster and all are invited to join for afternoon tea and a chat together next Tuesday. Julie Hawkey
