Christ the King Sunday

Christ the King (also known as Reign of Christ) Sunday concludes the lectionary cycle and marks the boundary between the end of the old liturgical year and the new year commencing with Advent. Christians are reminded of the Lordship of Christ and also the coming Kingdom, even as they reflect on the year past and the year to come.

Notices

Reminder - Locking procedure for Mountview Front Door

There have been a few instances lately where the front door of the church has not been locked. It is important we all observe the following when locking up:

Prior to leaving the building push the “push” button in and turn it to a “horizontal” position.

Exit the building by pushing the internal handle downwards to open the door. The door should close by itself. (If the “push” button is not in the “horizontal” position when exiting the door will stay unlocked.)

Before walking away please check that the door is locked by attempting to open the door by use of the external handle.

Tech Learn and Share

Just over 10 of us met at Forest Hill church for the first time in person last Tuesday evening. We had people from each of the Cluster congregations. Likewise, some brought tablets, others laptops, some took written notes and others were able to use someone else’s laptop to practice.

We took the opportunity to review, catch up and practice what we had been learning over the previous weeks on Zoom. We broke into specific interest groups, some exploring Zoom, others PowerPoint and others how to download from YouTube. We raised problems some of us were having and found ways to sort through them. It is amazing what we can learn and achieve when we do it together! It was great to see everyone helping and learning from each other.

While our next session’s location has not been finalized, it too is to be in person. We will let you know in the next newsletter details of location and topics.
