Congregational meeting 10th November

We welcome you all to the next Congregational meeting on Sunday 10th November following worship. Elections will be held, the budget for 2020 will be presented and updates will be given on various topics. We will seek your view on the notion of a 10am start for worship although no change is suggested at this time. Can you give this some thought, please? While we address the administrative matters necessary to keep our community functioning smoothly, can we also consider what God's mission for us might be in the coming year? All of your ideas are welcome. Please use our phone number or email address in the Directory to give us your ideas.

With thanks, Tim Menger & Lynne Rosenthal, Congregational Chair & Secretary
